

"Experiencing the Power of the Resurrection." at Gladys Staines home

DEATH:

We can do more in our suffering. It has been seen like this so many times in history. Christ did more by His death than anything else. Graham Staines has done more in his death, than in his entire life.

DELIVERANCE:

When Jesus made Lazarus get up from the grave, the grave clothes restricted Lazarus. Death has its own restricting power.

Colossians 1:17 - states that He delivered us and put us somewhere else.

Where were we? He took us out of darkness and brought us into His light.

Ephesians 2: 5,6 - We were dead in sin but Jesus pulled us out and made us sit in heavenly places.

DISPLACEMENT

He takes us from one place and puts us in another place.

One of the problems is - we want to be and do not want to be Christians at the same time. It is a constant struggle in which we are locked.

God knows everything we do, everything we are. A verse in the Bible states that Jesus did not commit Himself because He knew what was in them.

Sometimes we wish God did not know everything about us. And yet He is always prepared to forgive us.

DEFEATING SATAN BY FAITH IN CHRIST:

The victory, which Jesus accomplished when He died and rose again, is meant for us also. When we get the victory - Satan stands defeated.

Christ's victory over Satan is our way of having victory over Satan. Ever time we defeat him in our life; we are experiencing the power of the resurrection.

In the Book of Revelation, 7 Churches are mentioned. The message to them is the same - "To him that overcometh" or to him that has a victory. Whoever is relying in the power of resurrection is able to defeat Satan.

We all know that Satan is trying to tempt us. Paul said, "I have not got the whole victory but I am after it". That is what we should be after too. Christ has won the victory and we must accept this victory too.

In our life, we must experience Death, Deliverance, and Displacement and then by Defeating Satan and experiencing the Power of the Resurrection, we can find Jesus more real in our life.

In the book of Revelation, the words are to the Church. But what is a Church?
A Church is made up of individual believers.

Today, we need to individually overcome and taste victory.
